Sir Michael Caine was in Folkestone on Monday and Tuesday to shoot scenes for the new ghost movie Is There Anybody There? He is pictured here with child co-star Bill Milner.

EXCLUSIVE

BY NICK AMES

SCREEN legend Sir Michael Caine was in Shepway this week, filming a ghost story set for release this year.

The Zulu and Italian Job star is playing the part of an ageing magician in Is There Anybody There? – the story of a boy who is haunted by ghosts of the elderly people he befriends.

The family comedy is being shot at studios in London, but on Monday and Tuesday Folkestone doubled for the Yorkshire town of Hull in 1986.

Filming took place at the town's main railway station; St Peter's School, which was chosen for its seaside location; and along the coast road between Folkestone and Hythe.

Sir Michael was filmed running in front of a blue Ford Cortina as he rushed for a train with child co-star Bill Milner.

Dressed in a distinctive Russian-style hat, he chatted happily to the extras recruited locally – losing his cool only when his on-set chair broke and telling an assistant: "That's been happening all the time. The chair's rubbish".

The film also features Cape Wrath star David Morrissey and Shameless actress Ann-Marie Duff in the role of the child's parents.

Veteran screen stars Peter Vaughan, Sylvia Sims, Thelma Barlow and Leslie Phillips also all have prominent roles.

Sir Michael said: "I'm doing a movie called Is There Anybody There?, which is about a little boy who lives in an old people's home and he keeps making friends. Of course, every time he makes a friend the people die.

"So he gets a camera and a tape recorder looking for their ghosts. And a very old magician comes in

Water rates to increase

■ BY ROB LIVINGSTONE

FOLKESTONE and Dover Water Company is planning to raise water prices in Shepway.

Launching a consultation on water supply over the next 25 years, the company proposes most customers should be billed by meter by 2012.

However, the strategic direction statement that accompanies the consultation document states that "any charging structure will inevitably create hardship for some customers".

The document proposes that because of the social implications of debt and the essential nature of water, "there is a role for government to deal with this through social benefits and taxation".

"Legislative change is required to provide companies with recourse to tolls such as trickle flow meters and prepayment meters," the document states. "This would help us ensure customers that can pay do so."

The meter system would counter the growing numbers of unpaid bills, according to the report.

"There are two groups of customers here; those who choose not to pay and those who genuinely cannot afford to pay," it says.

The company believes the proposals would also lead to customers using less water as the new prices would "reflect the true costs of water supply to customers".

"This will require the development and introduction of new charging structures that consider the health and wellbeing of the customers and reflect the increasing environmental cost that our demand for water has."

The consultation document proposes extending the water meter scheme to as many customers as possible by 2012.

At present customers who do not have a meter are charged on the rateable value of their property.

The company claims the metering system provides a more accurate measurement of water consumed.

"For our charges to be fair and sustainable in the future they should reflect the true cost of water supply to customers," states the consultation document. "We believe that all customers should pay for water based on the amount that they use."

METER MAN: Water boss David Walton

David Walton, managing director of the Folkestone and Dover Water Company, says changes are necessary.

"To cope with global warming and an ever-growing population we have to regularly review and update our business and operational plans," he said.

"We live in one of the driest areas on the country and we have to rely on underground water sources, mainly in chalk and gravel aquifers." He added: "We need to ensure that we have a secure supply and must also build in a safety factor to take us through the difficult times."

Mr Walton also said the company would consider any proposals to improve services.

"For example the company has an excellent record on leakage and is now well ahead of leakage reduction targets," he said, "but we need to go further and ask how far ultimately we can bring down leakage and how cost-effective this will be for customers."

Mr Walton added that the company was contemplating recycling water supplies.

"We have to look at the reuse and recycling of water," he said. "Can we use grey water economically, and how would that compare against desalination? These are just some of the decisions we have to keep under review."

to die – me. "It's a wonderful script. Co-producer Rosie Alison said the film was due out next year

She explained: "We have assembled a great deal of acting talent for this production.

"It's a comedy, it's an intergenerational story which is very funny and also very moving. It's about being young and being old – it's about life and death."

Ms Alison added that the film was intended for a family audience.

"It is set in an old-age people's home," she said.

"It's about the relationship between a young boy and an older man – a magician, named Clarence, played by Sir Michael. He's someone who would have worked the old seaside piers.

"The boy is being brought up in an old people's home which is run by his parents.

"It is a real opportunity for Bill – an incredibly talented very young actor to show what he can do as it is a role with emotional depth.

"The nursing home is called Larkhall and it is somewhere in Yorkshire, with the film set in the 1980s.

"The young boy lives in the home as his parents run it. He's a bit of a disconnected child, an odd little boy who is obsessed with ghosts."

Further shooting is due to take place in Hastings, London and Buckinghamshire as the production continues.

Ms Alison added: "We chose Folkestone to represent Hull as we wanted to film near to London.

"It was a choice between Essex and Kent in the end – but we decided we liked Kent more."

Fans flock to film maestro's cottage

EXCLUSIVE

BY NICK AMES

FILM-LOVERS are flocking to the Dungeness home of cult movie-maker Derek Jarman as his punk masterpiece Jubilee celebrates its 30th anniversary.

Prospect Cottage – famous for its sculpture-strewn shingle garden – has always attracted tourists, but the film's DVD release has seen the number of visitors swell.

Mr Jarman died in 1994 after contracting an Aids-related illness.

Neighbours say camera-bearing tourists are becoming an ever-more frequent site along the coast road which leads across Romney Marsh to the gates of Dungeness nuclear power station.

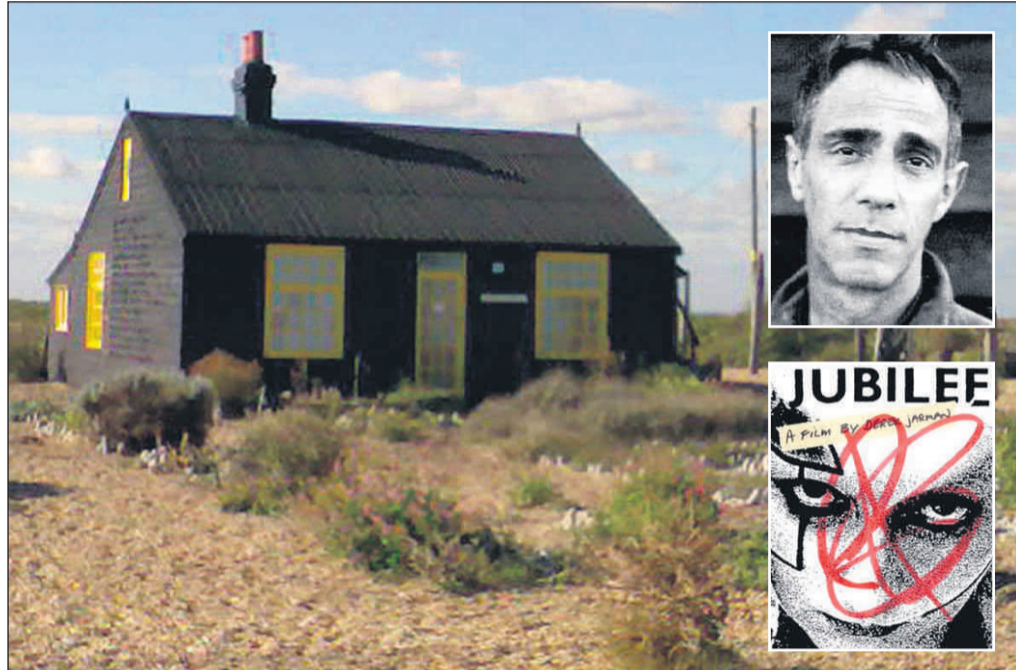

Keith Collins, Mr Jarman's former partner, lives at the address. He believes the film stands the test of time because of its groundbreaking fractured narrative.

"If Quentin Tarantino remade Jubilee today, it would be considered his masterwork," he said.

"I think people are still interested in the films because they are still on telly. There were a lot of great films made at the time that Derek was making his movies which have been lost because they weren't bought up by Channel 4."

That the films are still shown on Film4 and Channel 4 means there is a continued interest in Derek Jarman's work.

Jubilee – which took a caustic look at the celebrations surrounding the Queen's Silver Jubilee in 1977 and painted a picture of a desolate Britain in the midst of the punk rock explosion

CULT PUNK PRODUCTION: Prospect Cottage (main picture), Derek Jarman and a movie poster for Jubilee – is widely regarded as among his finest efforts.

It starred punk model Jordan in the role of Amyl Nitrate, with 70s rock stars Toyah Wilcox and Adam Ant also appearing on screen.

"That [TV exposure] does kindle the interest a lot," said Mr Collins. "But also because they are great films, they are very much commentaries on their time."

"You look at Jubilee and it is making a comment on 1977, like a historical record."

"It is good the films are being released on DVD

as it is hard to get a good print of them now.

Dungeness is a fascinating location, said Mr Collins. "It's a wonderful place to live – after living here a couple of years, I can see why Derek found it so peaceful."

"He found it a well spring of inspiration."

"He thought of the power station as the emerald palace, all lit up at night, reminding you that, even though you have this amazing starscape, somewhere there is a city, there is something else going on."

Memorial money stolen

THIEVES who crowbarred open a donation box at the Battle of Britain memorial have outraged volunteers.

The crooks prized open the money box at the national monument to the heroes of Fighter Command at Capel-le-Ferne – and made off with just £20.

The cash collected each day is vital to the upkeep of the memorial, which includes a sculpture of a pilot looking out to sea, a replica Spitfire and Hurricane and a wall listing the names of aircrew who took part in the battle which saw the RAF defeat Hitler's Luftwaffe in 1940.

Trustee Bernard Hyde said: "To come along and steal money given by generous people makes me feel sick."

"There is a word I don't like using called 'gutted' – but I was absolutely sick like all the other volunteers."

"The whole site was built on donations, so without that money we wouldn't be able to have the volunteers come along, the grass cut, the painting, the electricity, the water – we would just have to fold. "The money is vital – we need every penny."

Residents' views on the possible sale of the Royal Victoria Hospital

Halloween patrols stop the mischief

POLICE this week launched a campaign to combat anti-social behaviour in the run-up to Halloween and Bonfire Night.

The Safer Autumn drive has been brought in across Shepway as statistics show this is a time of year when low-level crime rises.

Patrols will be deployed to maintain a high level of visibility, especially in areas that have been identified as having more reported incidents.

Neighbourhood policing officers and police community support officers are supporting the Safer Autumn campaign by visiting schools to encourage youngsters to enjoy a safe and sensible autumn.

They have distributed leaflets that explain how some residents can be worried about trick-or-treat callers and that their right to live without fear should be respected.

The other side of the leaflet is designed to be displayed by people who do not want trick-or-treat callers.

These leaflets can be downloaded from the Kent Police website, www.kent.police.uk, or obtained from police stations, and have proved popular in previous years.

Road rage driver butted van man

A FORMER merchant seaman was fined £250 and ordered to pay £100 compensation after he admitted headbutting a van driver in a road rage incident.

Arthur Smith, of Wood Cottage Lane, Cheriton, pleaded guilty to an assault charge at Folkestone magistrates on Wednesday.

The court heard he exchanged blows with Raymond Webb in a Folkestone car park after he felt the van driver had put his life in danger by driving dangerously.

Smith, 63, who now works as a waste environmental officer in London, had earlier pleaded not guilty to the offence but subsequently changed his plea.

Alison Gurden, prosecuting, said: "This is what is known as a road rage incident."

She said the altercation followed an incident on a roundabout which led to a confrontation when both men left their vehicles.

Ms Gurden said: "They both got out and Mr Smith was heard to say 'Do you know you just nearly killed me?'"

Punches were exchanged before Smith headbutted his victim, who kicked him three times in the legs.

An examination of Mr Webb by a doctor showed swelling to his nose over the bridge and some internal injuries to nasal passages.

Charles Medlicott for the defence said Smith had been driving since 1962 and never even received a parking ticket.

"This is a serious and sad case," he told the court.

"Mr Smith was out shopping in Folkestone when he went to overtake a parked articulated lorry when a van driven by Mr Webb shot off the roundabout at high speed."

Confrontation

"It was a very, very near miss. Mr Smith was so enraged he followed the van and said he just wanted an apology."

"But when the confrontation occurred he felt he was going to be attacked."

Magistrates imposed the fine and compensation order, along with £150 costs, as chair of the bench Zoe Lash said they took into account Smith's previous good character and the fact that he worked long hours, so a community penalty would have been a harsher punishment.

Sneaky thieves make quick steal

POLICE are warning people in Hythe not to keep valuables on display and to lock their doors and windows after two opportunist thefts from households in the town.

A battery-powered golf trolley was stolen from an unlocked garage in St Hilda's Road between 10am on Saturday, October 6, and midday the following day.

In a separate incident, cigarettes, money and jewellery were stolen from a groundfloor flat in Stade Street between 7pm-11pm on Monday, October 8.

Sgt Jasmine Bloomfield from Neighbourhood Policing said: "Opportunist thieves target homes where doors have been left unlocked and windows have been left open.

"Please close and lock doors and windows to make your home harder to break into and don't leave valuables on view."

If you have information about these crimes, phone Folkestone police station on 01303 850055, or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Record-breaking charity runners

ALMOST £37,000 was raised for charities by runners in Saturday's Folkestone half-marathon.

The final total of £36,967 was described by race director Ray Johnson as "a large increase on last year's total".

Attracting runners from all over the South East, the men's race was won by Medway AC athlete Michael Coleman with a record-breaking time of one hour, 11 minutes and 10 seconds.

The women's race was taken by London's Emma Wilson, who broke the women's record at one hour, 24 minutes and 24 seconds in her first half-marathon.

ENJOY COASTAL WALK WEEK

This week is Kent Coastal Week - and there can be nowhere better to savour the experience than Shepway.

Today (Wednesday) there's the chance to look for fossils in the East Cliff and Warren Country Park area of Folkestone. The Fossil Foray will be meeting at the Pavilion in Wear Bay Road, Folkestone, at 2pm. There will also be a display of fossils to have been found in the park.

And on Sunday it's time for the annual Samphire Hoe Pen and Ink. The event, at the site between Dover and Folkestone, will feature a short walk from which children can draw inspiration, followed by a card-making workshop using natural pens and ink collected on the walk.

The group will meet at the Samphire Hoe site management office (off the A20 west of Dover) at 2pm.

Also on Sunday will be the Dover town walk, involving a gentle walk looking at historical places of interest.

'Future is rosy' for the creative quarter

ROGER DE HAAN has clarified his plans for Folkestone.

The philanthropist billionaire and Creative Foundation director was at an open evening in the hollowed-out shell of Kathmandu nightclub to talk about the objectives of the foundation.

Speaking to Yourshepway before giving his speech to supporters, Mr De Haan displayed an assured confidence about Folkestone's prospects.

"I think the future is rosy," he said. "There's the high-speed train service that's going to start operating here in December 2009. I think that by then we will have created a really vibrant artists' quarter here by the harbour."

Mr De Haan was proud to point out the new shops and artists' studios that have opened in the creative quarter.

"There has been a significant increase in the places that have opened, so we're here to celebrate that and to explain to our followers how we are getting on with our regeneration strategy," he said.

■ BY ROB LIVINGSTONE

Mr De Haan believes the arts are one of the key factors in the regeneration of the town.

"I think the arts scene is really changing," he said. "Our plan is to have a whole year's programme of really top-rate art festivals in Folkestone which should brighten the lives of those of us who live and work here, and that will attract visitors to the town."

In his speech to supporters of the Creative Foundation, Mr De Haan said he was delighted by the creation of the Folkestone City Academy, which replaced the old Channel School.

"I visit it almost every day and it has got off to a fabulous start," he said. "It is calm and there is a great atmosphere there. The morale between the staff and the pupils is very high."

"We have attracted some quite wonderful teachers, some of the best maths and science teachers in the county."

"The university centre is now open and everybody is confident that it will go from strength to strength - and of course it is here in the heart of the creative quarter."

Mr De Haan assessed the regeneration in the area around Tontine Street.

"We now have ownership of between 70 to 80 buildings and 15 to 20 per cent of those we have refurbished."

"A lot of the other buildings are in production, and it's a hell of a challenge as the owners have for decades come across a problem and hidden it behind a false ceiling or a false wall."

Some of the buildings would need to be structurally rebuilt, said Mr De Haan, "but we are trying to refurbish them to a high standard".

Having quality buildings is seen as crucial to regenerating the town.

"We want to bring them back to economic use," said Mr De Haan.

"Our mission is to own the buildings and control the rents, to try to keep them affordable for people in the creative industries."

Fraud gang may have your cards

WERE YOU HERE? Customers of the Palmarsh garage in August and September need to check for irregularities

HUNDREDS of bank and credit card may have been cloned by fraudsters at a garage.

Motorists who used their cards at the Jet garage in Palmarsh, near Hythe, are being urged by police to check if their cards have been used by criminals.

Officers believe customers who used their cards at the garage in August and September may be at risk.

Police spokesman Detective Sergeant Chris Gurney said: "We are working with the banks to investigate this and would advise anyone, if they think they have been a victim of card fraud, to report it to their bank.

"I appreciate this may cause some alarm but would like to point out the cloning at this garage took place between August 31 and September 14 and does not appear to have happened since then."

The cards may have been cloned by the process of skimming, in which the data on the magnetic strip is transferred to a blank card. The skimmed card can then be used like a genuine card.

Skimmed cards have been linked to international organised crime and can be used across the world.

■ BY ROB LIVINGSTONE

Skimming is estimated to net criminals some £100 million a year in the UK alone, according to the Association for Payment Clearing Services.

ConocoPhillips owns the Jet brand of petrol. A spokesman said: "While ConocoPhillips does not own or operate Palmarsh service station, we take allegations of card fraud at Jet-branded sites extremely seriously.

"We are co-operating fully with the police in their efforts to apprehend and prosecute any individuals concerned. Appropriate action will be taken if the allegations are substantiated."

The manager of the Palmarsh garage, Mr Arun, refused to comment to Yourshepway about the reported card cloning.

Cardholders can stop card fraud with a few simple steps. People should never let their cards be taken out of sight as skimming can take just a few seconds.

All receipts and paperwork should be shredded, as criminals build up a complete profile of the card just using a receipt.

If you suspect your card has been cloned, call your bank and have the card cancelled.

Egrets, they've got a few at RSPB reserve

A MERE 20-odd years ago the little egret was a rarity in this country, but the species has enjoyed an astonishing expansion in range as it has pushed north from southern Europe.

This remarkable footage of it fishing was taken at Dungeness RSPB reserve, ironically a site whose astonishing range of wildlife is hardly likely to benefit from a three-pronged assault on Romney Marsh. Proposed Lydd airport expansion, a third Dungeness nuclear power station and a wind farm near Cheyne Court all loom on this starkly beautiful horizon.

Prison is home from home for serial offender Mapp

JAIL is just like a second home for serial offender Mark Mapp, 49, because he was born in one.

So when Folkestone magistrates jailed him for the 47th time since 1970 it wasn't anything new to him.

Mapp, of London Road, Dover, was given three months in prison for stealing a bottle of Oil of Olay from the Boots store in Biggin Street.

Rocco Maranaccio, defending him, outlined the whole sorry tale in trying, but failing, to keep Mapp out of prison.

He said: "My client was born in Holloway prison and then put into care. From the age of 12 he has been from detention centre, into borstal and then on to adult prison.

"All through his life he has been through a continuous cycle of prison and freedom.

"All his crimes are acquisitive. There has been little attempt at rehabilitation.

"Maybe you can't teach an old dog new tricks, but surely somebody can help him break this cycle of offending."

Art project in need of your wartime love letters

AN APPEAL has been launched for people to donate love letters from World Wars One and Two to a Folkestone Triennial art project.

The call for historical love letters was announced by Dr Lesley Hardy of the Folkestone People's History Centre and Andrea Schlieker, curator of the Folkestone Triennial.

Collected love letters will then be used by one of France's leading artists, Christian Boltanski, as part of a Triennial artwork.

For more information, phone Kim Dhillon from the Folkestone Triennial on 01303 245799, or the Folkestone People's History Centre on 01303 850614

Conman steals cash from elderly women's homes

POLICE are hunting a bogus caller who is believed to have struck twice on Saturday.

The offender called at homes in Sellindge and Hythe before midday, stealing cash.

In the Sellindge incident at 11am a bogus water company worker called at the house of an elderly woman. A police spokesman said: "It is believed cash was stolen when a second person entered the property.

"Then just before midday, two men who said they were builders talked their way into the home of an elderly woman in Hythe. She noticed cash had been stolen when they left."

The Remembrance Day perfume thief sentenced

WHILE shoppers and security staff were observing the two minutes' silence to remember Britain's war dead on November 11 last year, John Guest was stealing perfume from Boots in Folkestone.

Guest, 28, of St Michael's Street, Folkestone, was seen by a store detective stashing three boxes worth £91 beneath a rubbish bin in a nearby car park.

He gave chase, but Guest gave him the slip before having a few drinks and trying his luck in Lidl three hours later.

The shop manager saw him trying to take two cases of rum out of the store.

When he challenged him, Guest said he would break his nose if he didn't let go of his arm, but staff and shoppers grabbed hold of Guest and restrained him.

Because Guest is currently serving a 14-month sentence for assault, magistrates gave him a nine-month conditional discharge.

Don't let sun go down on your household belongings

AS the nights draw in and the clocks go back, police are warning people to secure their homes against opportunist burglars.

Police research shows the number of break-ins increases in November, with many homeowners not returning from work until after dark.

Folkestone police will be holding a free security marking event on Saturday, November 3, at Lidl in Haven Drive, Hawkinge, as part of the Safer Autumn campaign.

QUESTION & ANSWER

DONALD WORSLEY

Q & A

Donald Worsley, Labour candidate for the Folkestone and Hythe constituency, tells Robert Livingstone why he fears the prospect of the Tories regaining control of the country

Q Why do you want to be the MP for Folkestone and Hythe?

A I never wish to see this great country of ours governed again by a Conservative government in my lifetime. During 18 years of Tory rule we witnessed more than three million unemployed, mortgage rates topping 16 per cent, the inequitable poll tax and its riots and pensioner poverty. Kent also saw its coal industry devastated.

Q What do you think are Shepway's strong points?

A Firstly, the new constituency is not just Shepway but Shepway and the Saxon-shore ward of Ashford District Council. The outstanding strong points of the new constituency are its beautiful countryside and its coastline. The spring lambs on Romney Marsh are a sight to behold. The history and traditions from the establishment of the Cinque Ports to the role it played during the Battle of Britain make it a very special area to live in and explore. Economically, its ease of access to the Continent combined with motorway connections to London give it an economic advantage few other areas have in the country.

Q What do you think is undervalued in the constituency?

A The simple answer is its people and its industry. From the farmers and market gardeners who work extremely long hours in all weather to the shop and factory workers who toil away on the minimum wage to fill our shops with products. Also greatly undervalued in my view is the peace and tranquility the area brings to those who live and work here.

Q What is it like waiting for a general election to be called?

A It's a time to get on with life – not worrying about when it will be called, but just being certain it will be called at the very latest by spring 2010. Politically, I was pleased Gordon Brown didn't call an election. I believe the British people are fed up with governments calling elections every four years or less when they have a clear mandate and majority to govern for five years.

Q Labour has traditionally trailed the Conservatives and the Liberal Democrats in Folkestone and Hythe – why do you think you can buck the trend?

A I certainly don't take winning the election for granted, but then neither should the Tories. History is full of underdogs achieving unexpected victories. My guiding philosophy in life has always been a naval one 'You can't launch a ship without making waves... so make waves'. I intend to do just that with my efforts, with those of my party members, and with the policies I shall put before the electorate. I am under no illusion that to overturn the Tories' present majority will be a Herculean task, but I am up for that challenge.

Q Why do you think the voters should consider you when casting their ballots?

A Firstly, because I shall be the Labour Party candidate seeking election on the Labour Party's manifesto. Secondly, because I live and work in the constituency and I therefore can begin to understand the problems and needs of the constituency, from the concerns of farmers who face restrictions or ruin through diseases as broad as BSE, foot and mouth and bluetongue, to the inhabitants of Lydd and Littlestone who fear for their environment if the airport is expanded exponentially. But, most importantly of all, the policies and views I put before the voters between now and election day, in the letters or articles I have published in the press, interviews I give to the media, meetings I attend and the chats I have face to face with voters and their young children on their doorsteps, at their Post Offices or at their school gates.

Q What would you want to change as MP for the constituency?

A I want to change the mindset that puts personal wealth before public service, which puts spin and the cult of personality before the provision of excellent public services, which is at the heart of a Labour government's agenda – the mindset that puts the pursuit of global capitalism before the protection of the environment and the consequences of global warming.

furniture for life

The latest plasma screens have revolutionised television viewing, but the sheer size of these enormous units means they tend to dominate their environment. The answer to the problem comes in the form of magnificent, elevating cabinets which will definitely enhance rather than detract from your living space. The cabinets are available in traditional mahogany and yew as well as the latest contemporary natural oak. Your DVD player and VCR are stowed beneath the television and there is ample storage for DVDs and cassettes – and all hidden away behind the elegant veneered doors. The television itself is raised up by an ingenious, virtually silent mechanism operated by remote control. # Ali's bedroom grilling on air by TV star Kyle INVICTA FM presenter Ali Wheeler has been given a spicy grilling by Jeremy Kyle, one of the country's toughest talk show hosts.

Kyle now has his own slot on Invicta FM – the first was broadcast on Saturday – and he celebrated by giving Ali and co-host James Heming a taste of the full-on style which has made his TV show so popular.

Kyle's show on ITV1 is one of the nation's most popular, dealing with family and relationship issues, and bringing all parties together on screen – often with some explosive results.

He also looks at the everyday issues which affect our lives – and has won a clutch of awards for his way of resolving problems.

The 42-year-old presenter asked Ali: "Is it true your husband sleeps in another room during the week."

"Look at me, tell me."

Ali – who has confessed to being such a fan that she tapes Kyle's show when she can't see it live, said: "We sleep separately. He'd get in at midnight and wake me – I'd get up at 4.30am and wake him. It was causing arguments."

"So we sleep in separate rooms during the week, but come Friday and Saturday nights it's brilliant."

Jeremy replied: "Maybe that's the way to go." The chat show presenter said he was celebrating getting back into radio as James Heming had given him his first job – and he remembered trips to Whitstable to sample the town's oysters.

"Kent's close to my heart," said Kyle. "After

■ BY NICK AMES

10 years of late-night phone-ins and TV I want to just have fun. Just do it – let it flow. Radio is close to my heart."

Ali then explained how much of a fan of Kyle's work she was.

She said: "You shout at people, give them a roasting, then say 'Get off my stage!'. I go weak at the knees when you say that."

Ali added she was "slightly star-struck" at meeting Kyle and asked him: "What's one thing that's really shocked you?"

Kyle replied: "I can't answer that. This year there has been lots of talk about people getting angry during the show."

"But we try to help – for some people there is no counselling available to them and we act as a kind of last resort."

"But earlier this year we went to Kent to work with kids under the age of five – all of them have Aids and all of them are going to die."

"It was heartbreaking but the most inspirational thing I have ever done."

Jeremy's on-air career began in 1996 presenting an evening show on Invicta FM. Less than a year later, he was hosting his own show on BRMB. It was at BRMB that he won a Sony Award for Jezza's Jukebox, which preceded another big success, Jezza's Late & Live show.

Two and a half years and a nomination for CRCA's Presenter of the Year later, Jezza's Confessions was broadcast on the Century Network.

• Jeremy Kyle will be on Invicta FM every Saturday from 10am to midday.

War vets help to launch this year's Poppy Appeal

FALKLANDS WAR veterans will be honoured by the Royal British Legion when they launch their annual Poppy Appeal tonight.

Civic leaders and military commanders from across Kent will gather at County Hall in Maidstone for the ceremony.

County council chairman Leyland Ridings will officially launch this year's Poppy Appeal.

To mark the 25th anniversary of the conflict, the first of this year's poppies will be presented to three Falklands veterans from Kent: Steve Anstee, Keith Broome and Steve Tuffen.

War widow Margaret Finch will also be presented with a poppy.

After the presentation all civic and military guests will buy poppies to get the fund-raising rolling.

A rising number of ex-servicemen and women who have fallen on hard times have needed to approach the legion for help.

Last year alone the legion in Kent helped more than 500 people and this year the number has already reached 650.

A spokesman said: "The need for the legion's support is constantly growing, so the Poppy Appeal is as important now as it ever has been."

Tired drivers asking to be stopped by traffic police

SHATTERED foreign lorry drivers are asking police to arrest them so they can get food and sleep.

The revelations have come from the National Roads Policing Intelligence Forum, which monitors traffic nationwide.

Officers said the drivers dial 999 and tell them their location and registration. They then ask to be taken off the road as they feel they pose a danger to other road users.

Kent's two main highways – the M2 and M20 – are among the most used by Continental haulage companies, many of whom are willing to overwork drivers and care little about safety concerns.

Chief Superintendent Geraint Anwyl said: "They don't dare to stop at a service station, so they call us from their cab. They say: 'I have been driving for many hours. Please stop me because I'm dangerous. If you do, I promise I'll never work for this company again.'"

Be prepared for going off the rails with Nintendo Wii

WE have four copies of top new video game Thrillville: Off the Rails for the Nintendo Wii console to give away.

Featuring some of the most outlandish rollercoaster concepts ever imagined, it builds on the success enjoyed by the original Thrillville game.

Off the Rails, by Frontier Developments, is unleashed this month and includes new ways to talk to park guests and a wider array of carnival games.

The game will be available in the shops for the Xbox 360, PlayStation2, PSP, PC and Nintendo DS, in addition to the Wii.

Off the Rails lives up to its name with 20 death-defying rides so outrageous that they inspire the same word from every park visitor who sees them: "Whoa!"

Players build these incredible 'Whoa Coasters' to leap from one track to another, launch through the air like cannonballs, blast through burning rings of fire and more.

A new light-hearted story ties together more than 100 missions, complete with 34 playable multi-player theme-park games.

Jim Ward, president of LucasArts – the company behind the game – said: "Between its amazing new Whoa Coasters, improved socialisation and a huge selection of minigames, Thrillville: Off the Rails is practically three great games in one."

To enter, simply answer the question below and send your entry on a postcard, along with your email address (if applicable), name, address and daytime telephone number to Thrillville Comp, KOS Media, Apple Barn, Smeeth, Ashford, Kent TN25 6SR. Closing Date is November 21, 2007.

QUESTION: What is the name of Nintendo's latest best-selling console – the Wii, the Woo or the Whoa?

your shepway blogger

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living in the district of Shepway...

Should we trust France to host a world event again?

WE describe them as “chauvinists, stubborn, nannied and humourless”.

To the Germans, they are “pretentious, off-hand and frivolous”.

The Dutch describe them as “agitated, talkative and shallow”, while according to the Spanish they are “cold, vain and impolite”.

In Italy they come across as “snobs, arrogant, flesh-loving, righteous and self-obsessed”.

And even the Swedes consider them “disobedient, immoral, disorganised and neo-colonialist”.

Yes – nothing unites people across Europe quite like a hatred of the French.

And recently we have seen one of the best examples of the sheer nastiness of a nation populated by “cheese-eating surrender monkeys” (that one’s from the Americans).

Their response to being dumped out of the Rugby World Cup and the sight of so-called hardman heartthrob Sebastian Chabal in tears? A general strike.

And it wasn’t aimed at making their own countrymen suffer. Whatever anyone says, it was aimed fairly and squarely at England fans travelling to the weekend’s final.

Hundreds of thousands of workers walked out in what was supposed to be a dispute over pension reforms. Well, surely if rail, Metro, bus and state rail workers have a problem with that, it is purely an internal affair.

Not one which affects thousands of English – and indeed South African – sports fans who wanted to attend the event of a lifetime.

Travel on Saturday across Paris from airport to stadium and using the country’s admittedly excellent rail system was a nightmare.

Those French workers chose to strike on those days for maximum publicity and maximum inconvenience. Just as whenever there is some sort of problem with farmers or fishermen, they blockade the Channel ports.

No other country takes out its internal disputes on another quite like the French do on us.

So it begs the question – should the French ever be allowed to host anything of international importance again? The unions deliberately targeted the World Cup in an effort to blackmail the French government and President Nicolas Sarkozy over his laudable attempts at reform.

State workers enjoy rights which allow them to retire on full pension at 50 – at a cost of an annual £5 billion a year to the French taxpayer.

France spends a ludicrously unsustainable 52 per cent of its wealth each year in the public sector – but its laws are such that fewer than half of French adults pay income tax.

The country’s prime minister Francois Fillon has all but admitted his country is bankrupt.

The latest strike not only lost France’s credibility to hold major events – it also went a long way to bringing the country to its knees economically.

Here’s hoping!

TALK TIME

RICHARD HALL

The rural housing enabler based in Folkestone reveals what his job entails

Tell us about your work with Rural Kent

I am a rural housing enabler, working for Action with Communities in Rural Kent (formerly Kent Rural Community Council). We are an independent voluntary organisation whose aim is to improve the quality of life for local rural communities in Kent and to help create and develop thriving, diverse and sustainable communities and help the disadvantaged within those communities. I work directly with parish councils, local authorities, housing associations and local rural communities to help develop affordable local needs housing schemes. I assist parish councils and rural communities by providing independent and impartial advice in relation to local needs housing schemes. These schemes are important for Kent's rural communities as they are a way of providing people with the homes they need within their communities at an affordable price.

What do you enjoy about your job?

By working directly with rural communities I am given the opportunity to directly help those in need, a very rewarding feeling indeed. Many people in rural locales do not have much of a voice in today's urbanised world and by representing these people directly it helps to give them a voice and remind people that some 30 per cent of our population, here in Kent, is living within rural communities. Also, my job gives me the chance to get out and about around Kent and visit some of the stunning villages and parishes our county is blessed with.

YOUR LETTERS

Changes must preserve history

Regarding the Folkestone Museum part closure and the revamp of Tontine Street.

Firstly, while I think people should complain strongly about KCC's rushing the museum changes through, perhaps the answer is to keep the 19th-century and 20th-century exhibits at the library along with full public access, but then transfer the remaining collections intact to another building.

I suggest, for instance, the now closed but nearby Rendezvous Club, where there may be enough space to display much of the remaining exhibits and provide for new finds.

If not, then something similar within the new seafront plans. Folkestone deserves its history to be fully accessible to all and kept local.

Secondly, as regards Tontine Street, I understand that Roger De Haan has purchased the Brewery Tap pub and I hear concerns that it could be demolished as the frontage is not listed.

I hope this will not happen – the frontage surely needs to be preserved as part of this area's heritage, even as part of a new building.

Otherwise the street proposals up to the 'spurs' are great, but there is surely no way buses and HGVs would be able to turn left into a two-way Dover Road section off the eastern fork.

It is too narrow at present and could only be achieved if the existing buildings were either demolished, and the bingo hall reduced in size, to provide a left-turn slip road and needed widening in front of the health centre. The bus stop would also have to be moved farther up.

If this can be done successfully then the western spur could be pedestrianised, but if not then the latter would have to include a bus/bike lane and HGVs routed via Canterbury and Blackbull Roads for the town, although cars may still be able to turn left at Dover Road.

So I hope people will speak up and ensure the much-needed redevelopment of the town will not be at the expense of, as far as possible, our heritage – including the museum collections or indeed road safety in the area.

Rugby boys did the nation proud

Well, what a shame. But on a different day, with a different referee, we might have won it.

But let's support our rugby boys – they did the nation proud. Against a fine team they never stopped fighting and their heads never dropped.

Now let's have a young side for the Six Nations and start to build for the next World Cup. Roll on New Zealand 2011.

The future is not bright for football

A triple defeat for our sportsmen last week – but how different each performance was.

I suppose the footballers were unlucky – a dodgy tackle outside the area results in a penalty. But where was the fight and guts?

The rugby players showed it all over the pitch – they were never going to lie down and die.

And Lewis Hamilton – his car has been brilliant all season and yet on the deciding day there was a technical fault.

Am I alone in wondering exactly what caused that?

Wow! Look at me now!

I dropped 3 dress sizes in just 6 weeks.

I liked all the wrong foods especially crisps and nuts, and my weight kept creeping up and up. I wasn't happy being a size 18 but crash dieting only made me put on more weight.

I had tried a slimming club, but didn't like the group element and their food plans didn't fit in with my social life.

When SureSlim got the results of my blood test, it confirmed that I had high levels of glucose in my system, which made me more hungry than I should have been, subsequently I was over-eating. SureSlim then drew up a food plan based on what would work for me.

The first week I struggled, wondering how I would cope without milk in my tea, but by week two I wasn't even thinking about it.

I've not just lost the weight either – I've also lost the over-whelming feeling of tiredness that I used to have.

I was comfort eating as I was stressed in my job and the weight just crept up. That's when I realised I had to do something. Once I started on the plan to my amazement I lost 10 pounds in the first 10 days!

And now I've reached my goal weight in I can happily wear my little blue dress!

More respect for wild creatures

I read last week of the injury to Sandgate's best-loved resident – Dave the Dolphin.

Why do people persist in using boats to get close to a creature in its natural environment – putting both themselves and the animal at risk?

It is a shame that part of her tail has now gone in what clearly seems to be the result of a collision with a small boat – people should be more careful and respectful.

Smoke ban killing pub atmosphere

I read last week how staff at one Folkestone pub were saying takings have gone up since the smoking ban has come into force.

Well, I have to disagree. My local has become dead since the ban came into force.

Everyone who used to drink either stays at home or just waits on the pavement outside with a cigarette and a beer. The atmosphere inside is dead – and I'm not the only one who notices this.

I don't want to talk to every stranger

Last week's blogger was at pains to point out how annoying mobile phones are.

I have to disagree.

Why make small talk with someone serving you a drink or some person you will never see again but just happens to sit next to you on a train?

All your friends are on the phone – so why not chat?

Roll on the time you can get Facebook on a mobile – no one will ever have to talk to anyone again.

Blogger is making the right call

Your blogger hit the nail on the head last week and no mistake.

Mobile phones are the curse of the modern age.

Yesterday I was shopping in Sainsbury's and I heard someone say into their phone "diet or normal?" while looking at bottles of lemonade.

What a pointless call – they were only 19p each, so to buy both would have been cheaper than the call.

I just wanted to say: "Get a life!"

Andrew Motion talks about his life as the Poet Laureate and the personal exploration he undertook in compiling his memoirs

HAVING a way with words is certainly helpful when trying to explain the role of the Poet Laureate.

Andrew Motion has held the title for more than eight years, yet still finds himself explaining the ancient role to both adults and children alike.

"It's a peculiar position and I try to shed light on it," he said. "I see myself as something of an ambassador for poetry – not just for my own work, but for the provision that is made for poetry in schools."

Audiences will have the chance to ask Motion about his appointment when he comes to Tunbridge Wells next month.

An Evening With Andrew Motion will feature readings of poems both old and new, as well as extracts from his latest book, In The Blood: A Memoir of My Childhood.

His youth was coloured by a tragedy that is touched upon a great deal in his memoir.

Born in London in 1952, Motion started writing at the age of 16, a time he describes as "the usual age" when people tend to start exploring their deepest emotions. But he had

AN EVENING WITH ANDREW MOTION

Thursday, November 15
Trinity Theatre, Tunbridge Wells

more to explore than most, when his mother suffered a terrible riding accident and fell into a 10-year coma.

Despite the wealth of material available to him through memories and anecdotes, the poet found In The Blood to be one of his most difficult projects. But he believes the episodic nature of poetry can help people tap into, and deal with, some experiences concisely.

He said: "Poetry can help because people see it as a hotline to their strongest emotions."

"There's a lot about my mother's accident in the memoir. There's a sense that it's an inexhaustible subject and sometimes it seeps into other things, things that might not have anything to do with it."

In his high-profile role as Poet Laureate, Motion is entrusted with recording the nation's mood for posterity – a daunting task, even for the professor of creative writing at Royal Holloway, University of London.

He said: "A lot of commissioned work is very difficult because you have to triangulate your own feelings about things with the public perception of them."

"I feel a lot more under scrutiny when writing as the Poet Laureate and it has a different readership to my other work."

"If it's about a public or royal event then my poems are part of the news story at the time. I feel it needs to connect with people, but I do have a feeling of responsibility, especially when writing about a royal event."

He is aware that the Royal Family might not enjoy the same popularity it did many years ago, but still believes that poems about royalty can be meaningful for the country as a whole.

"There are a lot of republicans who will not find it very interesting, but otherwise I feel a duty to encapsulate what the public are feeling," he said. "I think I have to approach each issue as an individual, with the hope that it will find a wider echo."

The show starts at 8pm and tickets cost £15/£13. To book, call the box office on 01892 678678 or visit the website at www.trinitytheatre.net.

PAUL CARRACK

Thursday, November 15
Leas Cliff Hall, Folkestone

PAUL Carrack, who found such huge success with Mike + the Mechanics, picked up the music bug at a young age.

In his teens, Sheffield-born Carrack learnt to play the organ and, like The Beatles, completed tours of Hamburg nightclubs.

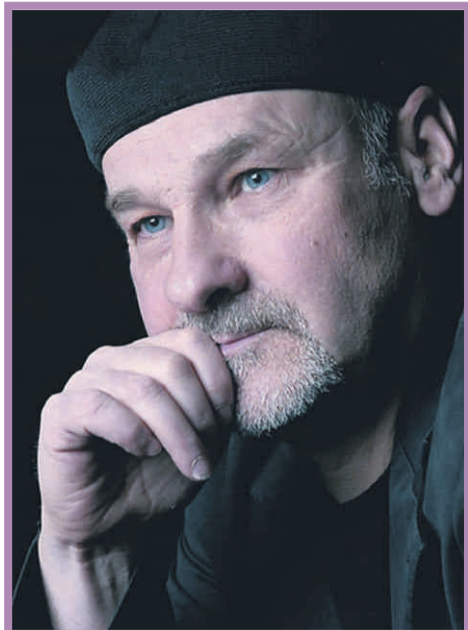

In the early 1970s, his progressive rock outfit Warm Dust released a few albums, but it was his global hit How Long with pub-rock band Ace that really launched Carrack's career.

After the break-up of the band, he worked with Frankie Miller and toured with Roxy Music. During the 1980s, he played on albums by The Undertones, The Smiths and The Pretenders, as well as joining Squeeze on their masterwork, East Side Story.

A meeting with Genesis guitarist Mike Rutherford and the instant success they experienced with Silent Running led to Mike + The Mechanics being formed.

Over the next decade they toured extensively and racked up a string of hit singles and albums.

He has worked with many stars of the music world since then and has released four solo albums and two live DVDs.

Tickets for the concert, which starts at 7.30pm, cost £24.50. To book, phone the box office on 0870 4000 890, or alternatively visit www.leascliffhall.co.uk.

HOT FLUSH!

Monday, October 29, to Saturday, November 3
The Marlowe Theatre, Canterbury

FOUR ordinary women living extraordinary lives are the stars of outrageous new musical Hot Flush!

Described as the perfect girls' night out, the play explores the friendships, secrets, laughter and tears shared by the four friends as they celebrate being 'a certain age'.

Hot Flush! stars The Three Degrees sensation Sheila Ferguson, with screen siren and former Celebrity Big Brother housemate Rula Lenska.

They are joined by international musical diva Marti Webb and West End leading lady Rachel Izen, while television heartthrob Sam Kane has the demanding job of playing all the men in their lives.

With some fabulous songs and sizzling choreography, Hot Flush! promises a fantastic night out. The musical – subtitled “a celebration of the wonderful world of HRT” – is not suitable for children.

Performances start at 7.30pm Monday to Thursday, and at 5.30pm and 8.30pm on Friday and Saturday.

Tickets are priced from £11.50£24.50 – concessions are available. To book, phone the box office on 01227 787787, or visit www.marlowetheatre.com.

DAVE COUSINS AND THE BLUE ANGEL

Saturday, November 3
Astor Theatre Arts Centre, Deal

FOLLOWING the success of their sold-out show at the Astor last year, Dave Cousins and the Blue Angel are returning to Deal.

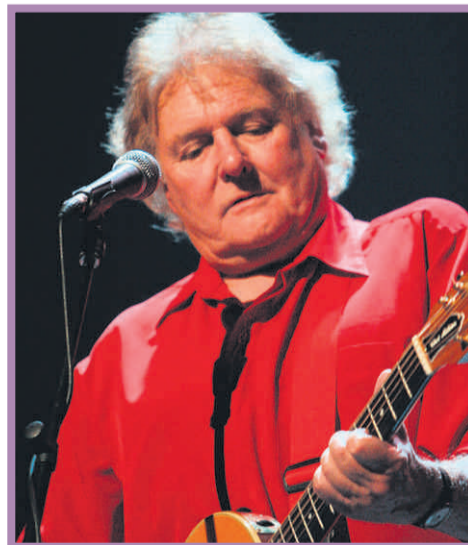

With a unique line-up of musicians and entertainers, the appearance follows the release of their acclaimed new album Boy In The Sailor Suit.

With some unexpected and special guests on the cards, music lovers can look forward to a great evening of entertainment.

As the heart and soul of rock band The Strawbs, Dave Cousins has led the band through many changes, from its early days and folk-rock to the creature it is today. He also performs as part of the Acoustic Strawbs, appearing at festivals around the world.

He has recorded with Rick Wakeman and the German guitarist/prog rocker Conny Conrad, as well as maintaining a successful parallel career in marketing and local radio.

You can discover more about Dave Cousins and his career at www.strawbsweb.co.uk.

Tickets for the gig, which starts at 8pm, cost £16 in advance and £20 on the door. Phone the box office on 01304 381134, or visit www.astortheatre.co.uk for more information on how to book.

ON GENERAL RELEASE

THE LAST LEGION (12A)

AS the once-great empire of Rome threatens to fall, 12-year-old Emperor Romulus Augustus is held captive on the island of Capri. When the youngster stumbles upon Excalibur, the legendary sword of Julius Caesar, he embarks on a momentous journey of self-discovery in search of the fabled Dragon Legion, making a final stand for Rome.

NANCY DREW (PG)

THE resourceful teen detective, Nancy Drew, leaves her friendly home town of River Heights for the West Coast and enrolls at Hollywood High. There, her unique style immediately sets her apart from her self-absorbed, fast-living peers. It isn't long before Nancy gets the lead on one of the greatest unsolved cases of all time: the mysterious death of famous actress Dehlia Draycott.

RENDITION (15)

THIS skilfully crafted thriller explores the unacknowledged US policy of reportedly detaining foreign nationals considered a threat to national security and interrogating them in secret overseas prisons. Starring Jake Gyllenhaal and Reese Witherspoon, there's an almighty narrative bombshell in the closing minutes which you don't see coming.

Beauty takes a beastly role

■ BY EILEEN CONDON

WITH her flawless complexion, sparkling blue eyes and lithe figure it's difficult to believe that actress Michelle Pfeiffer turns 50 next year.

Somewhere along the way she seems to have discovered the secret of eternal youth.

But far from being smug about her radiant looks, the down-to-earth actress says she's "horrificed" at the current obsession with anti-ageing.

"It never fails to amaze me the lengths some women will go in order to retain their youth," she said. "And yet, there is a great myth that beautiful people lead beautiful lives. We all get hurt and damaged."

Fed up with Hollywood's preoccupation with image, the talented actress took a five-year break from making movies and concentrated instead on her favourite role – being mum to daughter Claudia Rose, 14, and son John Henry, 12, by her producer-writer husband David E Kelley.

"I didn't want to go back to work unless it was something really interesting," she said of her extended hiatus from the big screen. "I was enjoying being involved with the kids. There was a time I was just so busy with work."

"I was never home, calls didn't get returned. I was always off here there and everywhere, but then children come along and it takes you completely by surprise how deeply your love runs for them, so the challenge for me was to find something that could tempt me away from what I loved doing which was being a mum."

The popular actress seems to have found that very challenge with her new movie, the eagerly awaited Stardust, playing a deliciously wicked witch.

yourkenttv.co.uk

"I thought if I don't do this I'm going to regret it and I certainly didn't want anybody else doing this part," she said.

Directed by Layer Cake's Matthew Vaughan and with a screenplay co-written by Jonathan Ross's wife Jane Goldman, the film boasts a stellar cast including Robert de Niro, Clare Danes, Ricky Gervais and Peter O'Toole.

It tells the enchanting tale of a beautiful fallen star (Danes) who crashes into the mythical kingdom of Stormhold where she finds love with young Tristan (Charlie Cox) and danger in the form of wicked witch Lamia, (Pfeiffer) hell-bent on stealing her youth and beauty.

Regularly voted one of the world's most beautiful women Michelle had to age 5,000 years in the film with the help of heavy prosthetics. The petite actress admits she was so alarmed by the final look she burst into tears.

"I went into the bathroom and cried," she said.

AGELESS: In her return to the silver screen actress Michelle Pfeiffer plays Lamia, a 5,000-year-old witch

"It had taken six hours to apply the make up and it never occurred to me what that would feel like and the claustrophobia that would set in. My entire face and head and neck were encased in rubber and the only things left of me was the tip of my nose and my eyelashes. I panicked and thought 'How do I get out of this?'"

"It took more than an hour to get it off. They had to peel it off and it had to be done slowly because if they went fast it could lift a layer off your skin."

It looks as if the three times Oscar-nominated actress is back for good now. She's been inundated with new movie offers and her reputation as one of the industry's finest leading ladies has been set in stone – literally – as she's just been awarded her very own Hollywood Star on LA's prestigious Walk of Fame.

Love life, love Normandy

BY DAVE MAIRS

IT was, for one brief but despairing moment, as wretched a start to a holiday as you could imagine.

The drive south-west from Dunkerque had been getting progressively gloomier until, by the time of our arrival in Normandy, the rain was heavy and the August temperature chillingly and depressingly low.

Worse, our gîte was empty, the shutters were down, we had no key – and the holiday looked over before it had begun.

Cue some of the Norman hospitality and friendliness that was to be such a feature of the forthcoming week. The problems in communication (our fault) were resolved by the neighbours, and within an hour we were inside, settled and upbeat if a little sorry that we had had to decline an invitation to what was clearly a bit of a party next door.

The warmth of the people was evident throughout our week, but sadly it was never matched by the weather. The rain was replaced occasionally by mere grey skies and gloom, but yet, despite the odd dropping of spirits, our holiday was delightful. Really!

We were based near Avranches in Normandy's La Manche department, which meant we were also within easy striking distance of Le Mont Saint-Michel.

This World Heritage Site is a rocky island that hosts a monastery – it is a fantastic-looking place and accordingly attracts fantastic numbers of people. Too many people, if truth be told.

LE MONT SAINT-MICHEL: A World Heritage Site, but one that attracts an awful lot of camper-vans

As we finally reached the quagmire of a car park and its battalions of camper-vans, we pondered the reality of traipsing through cobbled streets among hundreds if not thousands of people in the driving rain with an 11-year-old girl who doesn't like walking and a 19-month-old toddler who likes pretty much anything but shouldn't have to put up with such miseries.

And so an about-turn it was. Thoughts of "When you've seen one cobbled street, you've seen them all" wandered across our minds and so we were away to the nearby Cimetière Militaire Allemand, "a unique German mausoleum in France", according to the bump.

Having the place entirely to ourselves, this site at Mont de Huisnes, which holds the tombs of 11,956 German soldiers, is a solemn, moving place. As one of the inscriptions read, nationality means nothing when people are dying in battle. It's perhaps war's greatest irony. And indeed the shadow of World War Two still hangs over Normandy, and a visit to one of the crux sites from this extraordinary period of European history was essential.

We chose Arromanches, the coastal town off which the Mulberry B harbour was put into place. This wonderful feat of engineering facilitated the landing of Allied troops on D-Day, and again you realise how poor your knowledge of those awful years is.

You can still see some of the harbour remnants offshore, while one of the highlights of the holiday was the visit to the Arromanches 360 cinema. Here you stand in the middle of a 'surround-screen' that shows film of the D-Day landings mixed with more peaceful contemporary scenes. Brilliant.

But Normandy is very far from a war museum. We also visited Granville, an undeniably characterful coastal resort and site of Christian Dior's home. Even the least fashion-conscious among us (me) couldn't resist a ramble through its grounds and indeed among some of Dior's most elegant designs in the building itself.

Our time in Normandy was, as ever, far too short. We managed to squeeze in a day among the quite beautiful forest of the Normandie-Maine National Park, a dip in the swimming pool at Villedieu-les-Poêles (if you're going to get wet, you might as well enjoy yourself) and a tour around a cider-making operation.

Travel pieces often finish lamely with an 'I'll be back' line. The trouble is, I will be back – if only to prove the sun can shine in Normandy. Also, purely and simply, I love the place.

Travel details

Dave Mairs and his family stayed at a gîte in La Chaise Baudouin, a hamlet near the small but lively town of Villedieu-les-Poêles. To learn more about holidaying in Normandy's beautiful La Manche department, you can visit www.manche-tourisme.com/medianet-uk.htm. From Kent, the easiest way of reaching Normandy is to take a ferry from Dover and drive south-west using France's excellent autoroute system. The journey of less than 300 miles takes just five to six hours.

Bermuda

For those readers who pointed out to us the mistake in time difference between the UK and Bermuda last week, this is in fact GMT minus four hours.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

ENCOURAGING friends to pursue their dreams is the best way to inspire loyalty. Applying for jobs or undergoing a career change is favoured. An authority figure admires your clear thinking. Changes to your financial situation could force you to cancel romantic plans. This week would be ideal to close on a house or end a lease.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

YOU could have a meeting of the minds with a romantic interest. A temper tantrum could embarrass you. Maybe the reason your loved one is acting up is because you're not listening to their concerns. Do something nice for yourself like getting a spa treatment or going clothes shopping. This is a good time to go on job interviews.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

A PENETRATING insight in to a child or lover's character results in a wonderful breakthrough. At long last, you've discovered why a certain subject or activity upsets this person. Having a heart-to-heart discussion with a relative clears the air. Resist the urge to go shopping in response to a nasty shock. You could get word about a job or promotion.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

WORKING behind the scenes could dramatically improve your financial prospects. Fortunately, you're not the type who basks in the spotlight. An idea for conserving the office's resources also boosts your reputation. A dangerous sport or hobby could worry your friends. Questions regarding a business partnership or love affair are answered.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

YOUR sex appeal wins lots of favourable attention this week. Making arrangements for a long-distance trip is favoured. Be vigilant about filing out an official form. Acting hot and cold with a lover will backfire. If this relationship is going to work you need to prove your reliability. You could finally hear news about a community matter.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

YOUR playful attitude attracts the attention of a magnetic love interest. It may be virtually impossible to resist this person's charms. Going back to a hobby or sport you enjoyed as a child could be fulfilling. An authority figure's erratic behaviour is starting to affect your home life. You may want to make more time for soothing activities.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

AN increased desire to make more money could prompt you to overcome some deeply imbedded behaviour. A simple shift in attitude could yield impressive results. Keep communications with a sibling or neighbour a secret for the time being. Being kind to a business associate or romantic partner could backfire.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

YOUR powerful personality makes you stand apart from the crowd. Don't be surprised if you're singled out as the most talented member of the group. Visiting old friends could become a trend between now and mid-November. Household disruptions could make it difficult to maintain a pleasant attitude at work.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

ROMANCE could find you at an advanced class or cultural organisation. If you're already in a relationship, you might want to take up a spiritual practice with your amour. Matters related to tax, insurance, or a will are highlighted this week. If you aren't confident about dealing with these tasks yourself, enlist the aid of a professional.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

THIS week affords a welcome opportunity to improve your health regimen. A flirtatious conversation makes you excited about the future. If you're already in a relationship, be sure to attend a party with your lover. Rearranging your household may be necessary, thanks to some unexpected lifestyle changes.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

BE forceful when stating your ideas to the crowd. People will be much more receptive to your proposals if you exude confidence. If you're due for a raise, this is the week to demand it. Sudden changes at work could move you to a secluded area of the office. An inheritance, refund, or grant might come your way.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

YOU'RE a lot stronger than rivals realise. Any attempts to discredit you will fall flat. If you're put in charge of a group, invite members to discuss their ideas. Being receptive to their concerns will make you a popular leader. Resist the urge to contradict a respected figure in public or it will look as though you feel threatened by their expertise.

Don't miss a thing with the new iPlayer service

■ BY SIMON ROBINSON

THE BBC is launching a revolutionary new online catch-up service so viewers need never miss their favourite shows again.

The free iPlayer offers people the chance to download a range of programmes across the BBC channels on to their computer up to a week after transmission.

This will allow them to watch hit shows like Spooks, Strictly Come Dancing and Heroes any time they want.

Its producers say the beauty of the service is that viewers will not have to set any reminders, programme the Sky+, or insert DVDs or videos.

The only thing you have to do is remember the programme has been on up to a week after it aired and then get around to watching it in the following 30 days.

Ashley Highfield, director of future media, said: "BBC iPlayer is a free catch-up service for UK licence fee-payers.

"Your favourite programmes from all the BBC's network TV channels will be available to download over the internet and watch on your PC without advertising for up to a week after transmission."

Once a programme is downloaded, viewers will have up to 30 days in which to watch it.

After this period has expired, the programme file deletes itself, creating room for your next download.

The BBC is in discussion with a range of potential distribution partners, including MSN, telegraph.co.uk, AOL, Tiscali, Yahoo, MySpace, Blinkx and Bebo.

Mr Highfield said: "We are committed to making it as easy as possible to use BBC

UP-TO-DATE: Thanks to BBC's iPlayer service you'll never have to miss popular programmes such as BBC2's Heroes iPlayer. Developing a version for Apple Macs and Microsoft Vista is absolutely on our critical path. We're also committed to making it available on the television screen, which is why we are delighted to be working with Virgin Media towards a launch on cable later this year. We are hopeful that other TV platforms will follow soon after."

BBC iPlayer is currently being tested for technical gremlins, with a live date set for December.

In time, extra features will be added, such as streaming on demand, allowing users to watch a programme straight away; series stacking, which allows users to download episodes from selected series retrospectively; and the ability to catch up with radio shows you've missed.

The website allows viewers to browse for their desired programme in a number of ways – by the date it was aired, by category and via an A-Z search.

The only programmes which will not be available are those to which the BBC does not own the rights, such as sporting events.

The channels on offer for download are: BBC1, BBC2, BBC3, BBC4, CBBC, CBeebies, BBC News, BBC News 24 and BBC Parliament.

BBC iPlayer can be found at www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer.

The BBC's terrestrial rivals have launched their own versions of iPlayer, with ITV setting up Best of ITV, and Channel 4 bringing out 4oD, Video on Demand.

Best of ITV draws in viewers with classic episodes of Inspector Morse, Prime Suspect and Peak Practice, while Channel 4 gives viewers a 30-day archive and a pre-booking option.

DIY SOS: David Perrett, owner of Fixed Abode

Fixed Abode is there to help with little niggles

A NEW Kent company plans to make DIY a thing of the past for busy executives.

Fixed Abode has been set up by property consultant David Perrett, who recognises the frustration many people feel when faced with niggling problems such as blocked gutters and dripping taps – particularly after a hard day at the office.

His new venture is also geared up to help people who decide to move home and find they need an Energy Performance Certificate following the introduction of Home Information Packs at the beginning of August.

Fixed Abode provides a unique collection of benefits to homeowners, who can select from a range of annual maintenance packages.

Every package includes the Energy Performance Certificate that is now a legal requirement for home-sellers plus a Home Inspection Report carried out by one of the company's own experts.

"It's sad that many people spend more time worrying about their homes than enjoying them. And that's a pretty dismal state of affairs when you think how hard we all work to pay the mortgage," said Mr Perrett.

The service is web-based, with full information online at www.fixedabode.biz, or by phoning 0800 783 3986.

Affordable housing is not answer to property shortage

STRAIGHT TALKING: MP John Gummer spoke out at the Property Professionals Luncheon

Picture REX FEATURES

FORMER Environment Secretary John Gummer has called for affordable housing schemes to be abolished to allow more homes to be built in Kent.

The Tory MP was a guest speaker at the fourth annual Property Professionals Luncheon hosted by Clive Emson Auctioneers.

Almost 400 property experts from throughout the county listened to the speech at the Ramada Hotel in Hollingbourne on October 11.

Mr Gummer, 67, spoke passionately about a range of topics, including environmental housing, the shortfall of housing, and restructuring planning and building regulations.

He said: "We have an abiding interest – a very English fascination – with property.

■ BY JON COATES

"We get a feeling of comfort and security from it, we appreciate the concept of owning something of our own, a gratifying feeling.

"But we are now building fewer houses per annum since 1914. There is a shortage, a real shortage in all types of houses – full stop.

"The policy we need is to build homes, not restrict them by the dishonourable system of affordable housing."

The Suffolk Coastal MP stressed that the poorest people suffer most from not enough homes being built.

He called for the maximum number of homes possible to be built on sites without developers having to worry about meeting affordable housing requirements.

Mr Gummer suggested replacing building regulations with a system of objective standards which also meet environmental needs. He said developers should be told to build it to those standards or we pull it down.

With regard to planning laws he added: "Those who live on housing estates built after 1945 should do what they want."

He said arbitrators, not planners, should be sent in on modern estates to settle neighbourhood disputes on home extensions.

Mr Gummer called for the Government to sell off developable sites which they keep in case they need them in the future.

He also called for a government shift away from London to take the pressure off the South East.

"If you have a headquarters in England, the perception is you need to be in London.

"If Government relocated to, say, Preston, others would follow releasing the pressure on the South East. Government needs to be much more business-like."

MOTORS NEWS

New Renault Laguna setting sights higher

RENAULT dealers in Kent are upbeat about prospects for the newly arrived third generation Laguna.

The French marque has given the car a quality hike to pitch it upmarket, in the hope of squeezing German compact executive models that have nibbled at the Laguna's market share.

There is also the promise of enhanced reliability to counter teething problems that did so much to harm early sales of the previous version.

Hatchback and Sport Tourer (estate) versions are offered, with the possibility of a 'halo' model to come; reaction to a Laguna Coupé concept has been so positive that Renault must build it.

Youth team benefits from dealer's support

GILLINGHAM'S Dagenham Motors has backed local youth football team Chatham Colts Athletic under-18s to the tune of £424 – the cost of rain jackets and kit bags – as part of its community support.

The team, established last season, is currently ninth in the third division of the under-18s Medway News Youth League.

Glen Millen, sales manager of the Pier Road-based Ford dealership (pictured presenting the kit) said: "We look forward to having a successful partnership with the club and wish them every success this season."

Mazda introduces new lean, mean '2'

KENT Mazda dealers are expected to triple their supermini sales following the launch this month of the sleek, lightweight, economical and low emission Mazda2 – radically different in style from its boxy predecessor.

The newcomer has proved to be an excellent drive and is well priced from £8,499.

There is also the prospect of a win-win situation for sites with the Mazda Zoom Zoom logo too, since the old car has found new popularity as a practical and reliable used buy.

GROWING PROBLEMS : Smart's fourtwo is the perfect city/shopping car and has been improved by its German manufacturer Daimler-Benz

Smart's little gem makes big strides to improve

A SMALL, but perfectly formed, little car arrived in 1998 to be hailed as the start of the fight back against urban congestion and pollution.

The two-seat smart city car or 'fourtwo' offered economy, good protection within a tiny body, funky two-tone looks and easy parking – it was so short, it could be parked at right angles to the kerb.

But the smart did not storm the world as brand owner Daimler-Benz had hoped and much is now expected of an all-new version.

Former F1 champ Niki Lauda was wheeled in for the launch event I attended and joined some orchestrated banter about the new car.

Lauda is now a top businessman in his native Austria and, through his car hire company, a major smart customer with strong views on what had to change.

"Ah, but we have done everything that you ask Niki, ha ha," was the gist of the response from the Daimler-Benz top brass onstage, with just a hint of gritted teeth and the fabled German humour by-pass.

ROAD TEST SMART FOURTWO

BY STEVE LOADER

STAR QUALITY

|                |       |
|----------------|-------|
| Driving appeal | ★★★★★ |
| Image          | ★★★★★ |
| Space          | ★★★★★ |
| Value          | ★★★★★ |
| Running costs  | ★★★★★ |
| Reliability    | ★★★★★ |
| Green rating   | ★★★★★ |

Anyway, the car's compact, but raucous three-cylinder engine has been re-worked and refined.

The jerky gearbox is much better now when accelerating in fully auto mode, even if the short wheelbase still allows some pitching when the 'box shifts up, but it is small price to pay for the smart's convenience in stop-start town traffic. On the open road, manual selection is better.

Interior space is as good as ever; you feel you are in something larger, even if there are no rear seats.

It is arranged better and higher quality too – no more wobbly dashboard pods.

There is a proper boot now, with roll-top parcel shelf and two-part opening.

But while the car looks the same, a slight increase in length means its predecessor's ability to park nose or tail to the kerb is now a stretch too far.

It's the perfect city/shopping car though and a decent space-saving second car, even if prices start at almost £7,000 – the same cash buys a decent conventional four-seat supermini/city car.

At £7,612, it won't break the bank.

In fact, it's an extremely safe investment. With an electronic engine immobiliser, driver and front passenger airbags, central locking, and a hydraulic anti-lock braking system the car's well protected too. While the speed-sensitive power steering and 4-speaker stereo radio/CD player with MP3 compatibility are also included as standard, preventing any further raids on your savings.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

FAMILY CARS

THIS sector used to dominate the UK car market, but sales have been eroded by new categories such as the 4x4 sports utility vehicle (SUV) and MPV or 'people carrier' and encroachment by upmarket compact executive models like the BMW 3-Series, which now outsells former market leader – the Ford Mondeo. Nevertheless, many second-hand car buyers still like the idea of a spacious, comfortable and more conventional family runabout and preferably one with a hatchback, so here are three of the top sellers based on ability and value.

FORD MONDEO

ONCE the UK's favourite car, its fall from favour reflects upon changing tastes rather than its ability. The car's greatest weakness is the bonnet badge – something the latest generation car tries to overcome with Germanic quality and detail. Nevertheless, the previous car was well-built, superb to drive and incredibly spacious. Apart from the best-selling hatchback there is also a saloon and one of the roomiest and best-looking estates in the sector, plus a massive range of engines.

VAUXHALL VECTRA

MUCH of that said about the Mondeo applies to its arch rival, the Vectra. Instead of slugging it out toe-to-toe, these two old prizefighters are now back to back facing threats from other directions. The Vectra matches the Mondeo in most areas, but the Vectra is chunkier and the interior so well built that it almost intimidates. The choice of bodies echoes the Mondeo and the estate is the best load carrier in this sector thanks to a longer wheelbase.

RENAULT LAGUNA

AFTER years of failure in this sector, Renault finally hit the mark with the Laguna series. The key was conventional yet stylish looks with a hint of French chic, aggressive pricing and excellent specification and comfort levels. Where it really scores though is for engine choice, including Renault's excellent turbodiesels. Combined with excellent space and comfort it is easy to see why the Laguna is a hit with company drivers, though depreciation is a risk.

Picture yourself in a Fieldsales role?

Then why not take a shot at our Fieldsales Account Manager role!

We are offering you an exciting opportunity to develop your career within our busy sales department.

Working for a popular household magazine based in one of our regional offices you would initially be a part of a large fieldsales team in a pressurised but lively environment.

We can offer an excellent basic salary and uncapped commission. You will undergo an initial 2 weeks intensive training course and one to one coaching throughout your career with us. You will also receive a company car and mobile phone. In addition the company benefits are an optional Company pension and 25 days annual leave.

In return, the right candidate will have at least one years experience within a fieldsales role. They will meet clients face to face, consistently achieve & exceed monthly sales targets, canvass new business daily, build awareness of marketplace knowledge across many industries, develop and increase existing accounts.

Starting salary £17,842, with progression through contribution related pay to £19,572 per annum pro rata
Part-time 25 hours per week, term-time only Maidstone

Kent Safe Schools have successfully secured a bid to support permanently excluded young people through alternative education. We have developed three innovative projects designed to meet the educational needs of permanently excluded Year 10/11 pupils and develop the delivery of the Alternative Curriculum Programmes within an off-school site setting.

Through providing a positive intervention strategy, we are in a position to support a number of vulnerable young people at key stage 4, both in and out of education. All young people, but particularly those who are "at risk", need to develop particular knowledge, positive behaviours and pro-social attitudes and skills if they are to benefit from school, college or training, cope positively with the developmental tasks of adolescence and take on the responsibilities of adulthood. They need to be helped to gain employment or become otherwise positively involved in society.

Supporting the Project Officer in the running of the provision, you will possess a good understanding of educational issues and experience of working with this complex and difficult to reach, client group.

“Making more of talent. Including yours.”

As the leading training provider to the building services engineering sector, JTL is helping to create a new breed of plumbers and electricians. Skilled men and women of all ages, all backgrounds and practically every community and race. Our objective is to help them become the very best at what they do.

Regional Manager

£38,000 + company car South East – home-based with travel

Educated to HNC level or equivalent and with proven managerial ability, you'll monitor the work of our regional team, ensuring that our people are appropriately motivated and trained and deliver a quality service in line with our targets. It's vitally important that we comply with the terms and conditions of appropriate contracts and deliver a high-quality operational strategy. You'll ensure that the regional team is prepared for audits and oversee the negotiation of training provider contracts. Good IT skills and a driving licence are essential.

Assistant Regional Manager

£32,000 Kent, Surrey, East & West Sussex – home-based with travel

Responsible for the remote management of a sub-team through a range of different communication channels, you'll monitor performance and ensure that we comply with contractual requirements. You'll also support the Regional Manager in the development of successful regional strategies. As well as being educated to NVQ3 level or equivalent, you'll be proficient in IT and have a driving licence and access to a car.

For either role, it would be an advantage to have a working knowledge of the contracting and building services industry and experience of work-based learning. A CRB Standard Disclosure is also required. In addition to the salary, there is an excellent benefits package that includes a final salary pension scheme and BUPA. So take the next step. Contact our team for an application form by calling 01689 884107 or email hr@jtltraining.com quoting the reference number RM117 for the Manager's role or ARM118 for the Assistant's role. ## FROM SOMETHING IN THE CITY

TO SOMETHING MORE WORTHWHILE

PRISON OFFICERS – Kent & Sussex – £17,744 - £26,858
(£1,100 local pay allowance for Lewes only)

Every year, many people give up unrewarding jobs and become Prison Officers. There's much more to it than just locking a cell door. A good Prison Officer can help an offender identify opportunities to gain skills and qualifications that will reduce re-offending. We value qualities like understanding, consideration, patience, honesty, reliability and consistency, and for people with those qualities, the Prison Service provides real opportunities to make a difference. What's more, you'll be part of a close-knit team, the prospects for early promotion are superb and you'll learn a whole lot about yourself, too.

Visit www.hmprisonservice.gov.uk or call 01634 673037 for more information.

This post is open to part-time and job share applicants. You will be required to declare whether you are a member of a group or organisation, which the Prison Service considers to be racist. The Prison Service is an equal opportunities employer. We welcome applications from candidates regardless of ethnic origin, religious belief, gender, age (subject to being within the normal retirement age for the grade), sexual orientation, disability or any other irrelevant factor.

PART-TIME OPPORTUNITES TO JOIN A REVOLUTION IN MEDIA

Our newspapers have already received national acclaim, and now we are leading the way in the digital age, and have many part-time opportunities to be a part of this media revolution due for launch in September.

Part-Time Distributors Wanted

Join our award winning team, and earn extra cash.

Our newspapers Kent on Sunday and Kentish Saturday Observer have already received national acclaim and now we will be launching 8 new newspapers in the heart of Kent in September.

Opportunities are available to join our team of "Road Runners" across a number of areas, handing our new papers to the public at strategic points, and delivering copies to shops and businesses.

Each person will have a designated area, and it will involve a minimum of 5 hours work every Wednesday morning from around 6.30am, more hours are available if required.

We will supply promotional clothing, and back up support. You will need to be at ease talking to the public and capable of working under your own initiative, and be of smart appearance as you will become a representative of our award winning company.

There is also a possibility of some promotional work prior to the September launch if you would like additional hours. Good rates of pay, please contact Barbara Coker on 01303 817072

If you are interested, and would like a job description, please contact: Barbara Coker on 01303 817072 or apply in writing to Barbara Coker, Marketing and Distribution Manager, KOS Media Ltd, Apple Barn, Hythe Road, Smeeth, Ashford, Kent TN25 6SR or email: barbara.coker@kosmedia.co.uk

Kent

Police Officers

£21,009 plus £2,000 South East Allowance

The best part of policing goes on in your head. Understanding the criminal mind, evaluating situations and empathising with victims – there's more to policing in Kent than you might think. When you've completed your training, you can look forward to a highly rewarding and varied career – with the opportunity to specialise as you develop. But first you'll face a competitive selection process followed by two years of practical area-based work combined with academic study. Whatever your background or previous experience, if you have an open mind, please apply online at www.policecouldyou.co.uk Alternatively, hard copy application forms are available until Friday 2nd November 2007 by contacting our 24 hour recruitment hotline on 01622 650400 or by emailing policeapplication@kent.pnn.police.uk All applications, hard copy or online must be submitted by November 12th 2007.

Thanet is a beautiful place to work

Thanet is a great place to live and work. Our historic seaside towns of Ramsgate, Margate and Broadstairs are rich in heritage and opportunity. From the multi-million pound Turner Contemporary Gallery, the planned fast speed rail link to London, and the popular Westwood Cross shopping centre - this is an exciting time to join Thanet District Council. We are determined to improve the quality of life for local people. We believe that by listening to local people, working in active partnership and by being prepared to do things in an innovative way we can accelerate improvement and best meet the challenges ahead

Corporate Project Officer

£25,701- £29,328 per annum

Educated to degree level, with a passion for helping all areas of the Council improve performance, you will understand the wider local government agenda and be able to research best practice.

A skilled net-worker and influencer, you will engage with Senior Managers and support them to develop plans which move us to becoming an excellent council of the future. We think you will be able to see the big picture and be able to gather credible evidence, in order to promote and support improved performance.

Key to this role is the ability to conduct research and to write and present clearly and convincingly.

For an informal discussion regarding this post, please contact Sophie Chadwick on 01843 577180.

The closing date for this position is: 5 November 2007
Interviews will be held: w/c 19 November 2007

If you are interested in any of the advertised positions and would like to receive an application pack, please send an A4 or A5 size SAE for 65p to Mandy Coburn, RAPt, Riverside House, 27-29 Vauxhall Grove, London, SW8 1SY, clearly stating which position you are interested in or download an application pack from www.rapt.org.uk.

Closing date for completed applications: Friday 2 November 2007.

RAPt strongly encourages applications from Black and Minority Ethnic individuals and from those in recovery from addiction.

Treatment Manager

HMP Swaleside, Kent (gym & steam room facilities)
Starting Salary £28,366

We are looking for a Treatment Manager for our primary rehabilitation programme at HMP Swaleside. For this position, you will need experience of working in a primary addiction programme and a thorough knowledge of, and commitment to 12-step drug treatment. A recognised counselling qualification and experience of clinical supervision of others is essential. You will need to be highly motivated, efficient and determined to work in the challenging and environment of a prison.

Trainee CARAT Workers

All RAPt CARAT Units – Various Locations in Kent, Surrey, Hampshire, Thames Valley and London
Training grant of £618 per month + Travelling expenses

We are recruiting candidates for the next CARAT training course due to start in February 2008. This training is designed for individuals who are highly motivated and enthusiastic about involvement in drug work but have no relevant qualifications or experience. Training is full-time, runs over six months and leads to an NVQ Level 3 qualification in health & social care and accreditation with FDAP. Some candidates may be able to 'fast track' to apprenticeships during the training, subject to progression on the scheme. Interviews for these trainee positions will take place between 29th of October and the 9th of November 2007.

JOB TITLE:
Board Member Vacancies
LOCATION:
Whitstable
SALARY:
TBA
COMPANY:
Canterbury City Council
Can you help to shape the future of Whitstable Harbour? Appointment of independent board members Whitstable Harbour lies at the heart of the attractive north Kent town of Whitstable, overlooking the Thames Estuary.

The Harbour Board was set up by the Council in 2003 to deliver a strategy for developing the harbour as a self-contained operation offering both high quality marine commercial and leisure facilities. The Harbour is a working operation comprising a basin of 0.61 hectares capable of accepting vessels of up to 3,000 tonnes. There are three quays totalling 470 metres in length together with 4 hectares of adjacent land. In 2006/07 the harbour handled over 97,000 tonnes of cargo (mainly aggregates) from 92 ships and it also has an active commercial fishing fleet. In recent years an increasing number of leisure uses have become established to complement the commercial activities and the combination has provided a vibrant focus in the town for both businesses and visitors. For the first time in many years the operation made an overall operational profit in 2006/07. The Harbour Board, which has been acknowledged as a model of best practice, comprises both elected councillors and co-opted independent members. The term of service of two of the co-opted members will finish in January 2008 and applications are invited for replacement members for a term of three years. Applicants must have an interest in public service and be committed to developing the harbour as a financially self-supporting operation while balancing potentially conflicting demands. Proven skills in marine operations, property development or finance will be particularly welcome. There are nine board meetings a year together with occasional working groups as required. Board members receive a modest allowance and appropriate expenses will be reimbursed. We expect to hold interviews in the week commencing 12 November 2007. For further information and application forms contact: Malcolm Burgess, Head of Property Services Canterbury City Council, Military Road, Canterbury CT1 1YW Phone: 01227 862 096.

COMPANY:
HM Prison Service
Every year, many people give up unrewarding jobs and become Prison Officers. There's much more to it than just locking a cell door. A good Prison Officer can help an offender identify opportunities to gain skills and qualifications that will reduce re-offending. We value qualities like understanding, consideration, patience, honesty, reliability and consistency, and for people with those qualities, the Prison Service provides real opportunities to make a difference. What's more, you'll be part of a close-knit team, the prospects for early promotion are superb and you'll learn a whole lot about yourself, too. Visit www.hmprisonservice.gov.uk for more information.

COMPANY:
Kent County Council
Part-time 25 hours per week, term-time only. Kent Safe Schools have successfully secured a bid to support permanently excluded young people through alternative education. We have developed three innovative projects designed to meet the educational needs of permanently excluded Year 10/11 pupils and develop the delivery of the Alternative Curriculum Programmes within an off-school site setting. Through providing a positive intervention strategy, we are in a position to support a number of vulnerable young people at key stage 4, both in and out of education. All young people, but particularly those who are 'at risk', need to develop particular knowledge, positive behaviours and pro-social attitudes and skills if they are to benefit from school, college or training, cope positively with the developmental tasks of adolescence and take on the responsibilities of adulthood. They need to be helped to gain employment or become otherwise positively involved in society. Supporting the Project Officer in the running of the provision, you will possess a good understanding of educational issues and experience of working with this complex and difficult to reach, client group. This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Criminal Records Bureau. For an informal discussion about this post, please contact Jim Connolly on 07740 183 931.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

New scheme to improve cross-Channel trade

BUSINESSES have been offered help with developing cross-Channel trade in a pioneering scheme.

The Transmanche Technology project aims to break down the language barriers which until now have made the French market off-limits to many companies in the county.

More than 150 companies have already signed up and IT suppliers like New Creatif, which has offices in Folkestone and Canterbury, will share their expertise with businesses through the project.

For more details on the project call Estelle Timothy on 01634 338215 or visit www.transmanche-technology.com.

Chancellor issued with warning from big four

THE UK's four main business groups have joined forces in a concerted effort to persuade the Chancellor to suspend proposals in his recent pre-Budget report to abolish Capital Gains Tax taper relief.

In an open letter to the Chancellor, the heads of the British Chambers of Commerce, CBI, Federation of Small Businesses and Institute of Directors say the government policy came 'as a bolt out of the blue'.

They felt it necessary to write because 'the reaction of their combined memberships has been so universally strong'. They claim the decision 'will be felt throughout the economy' by 'discouraging longer-term investment and risk-taking'.

Batchelors' 50th is on the menu at breakfast

CHRISSIE Rundle, of Premier Foods, will deliver a talk on the impact Batchelors has had on Ashford during its 50 years in the town next month.

The networking breakfast, organised by the Kent Invicta Chamber of Commerce, will take place at the Holiday Inn on Canterbury Road on November 8.

The discussion will include the latest success in keeping the factory open.

Cost to members is £11+VAT and £16+VAT for prospective members.

A cooked breakfast, tea, coffee and orange juice will be part of the cost for the event which runs from 7.30am to 9am.

Listen to John Sheath of Brachers Solicitors on boosting business

SEASIDE VIEW: Four workshops to be held in November will bring together local councils, tourism and hospitality businesses to discuss how to market Kent's coast to a wider audience

Shifting perceptions to coastal horizons

A PUSH to promote the county's coastal towns to boost tourism and the hospitality business is underway.

According to research conducted by Kent County Council the vast majority of those quizzed now associate Kent with countryside and heritage holidays, but know little of its coastal attractions.

Now Kent Tourism, backed by the East Kent Partnership, is bringing together local councils, tourism and hospitality businesses and other organisations interested in promoting their area to discuss how to market the Kent coast to a wider audience.

Cheryl Parker, Kent Tourism's coastal project manager, is leading a series of four workshops across East Kent to encourage organisations to develop new ways of marketing the coastline to visitors.

■ BY ED HILL

She said: "In the past, people chose to visit specific destinations – such as Margate sands. Now visitors are making their holiday choice by the range of activities and experiences they can enjoy. This can range from walking and water sports to wining and dining."

"The challenges we face are meeting the needs of the new marketplace and accepting that neighbouring areas in East Kent are not in competition with each other to attract visitors. They all face the same competition from places such as Brighton and experience-driven destinations such as Wales and Yorkshire."

The Shifting Perceptions seminars and workshops are being held in Margate, Whitstable, Dover and Folkestone in November next month.

Fran Warrington, head of Kent Tourism said: "These workshops are directly addressing issues which have been identified by our detailed research and they are the first step in a process which will bring new life to the tourism and hospitality industry of the Kent coast."

The Coastal Kent Initiative is supported by East Kent Partnership, Kent Tourism, and Canterbury, Thanet and Dover councils.

• The Shifting Perceptions events take place at Margate's Media Centre on Kings Street on November 5; Whitstable's Horsebridge Centre on November 6; the Ramada Hotel in Whitfield, Dover on November 15; and the Grand Burstin Hotel in Folkestone on November 16.

For further information about attending contact Shirley Lewis by email: shirley@east-kentpartnership.org.uk or call 01304 820312.

Channel-cross world record

OLYMPIC medallist Ian Wynne smashed the world record for crossing the Channel in a kayak.

The 29-year-old arrived in Calais in two hours, 59 minutes and six seconds, more than 22 minutes faster than the previous record.

Wynne said: "It was very different from short-distance sprint racing that I have been used to, but I enjoy the challenge."

The Sevenoaks-born athlete battled against a strong crosswind and had to navigate through one of the busiest shipping lanes in the world.

Eastern promise for cricketer

CRICKETER Dan Clark will be swapping Folkestone for Mumbai in India after jumping at the opportunity to train with one of Indian cricket's most renowned coaches for six months.

Clark, who plays for Folkestone Cricket Club, has the chance to improve his skills during the close season.

He will be staying with Folkestone player Himanshu Waingankar, who also plays for Mumbai Cricket Club, the same side as Indian cricket legends Sachin Tendulkar and Ramesh Powar.

Although Clark did not have a great season, he was upbeat about the move to India.

He will be training with Keki Tarapore, one of the most respected coaches in Mumbai and who has trained the likes of Rahul Dravid and Powar.

Clark also hopes to meet up with Kent player James Tredwell, who will be featuring in the England Cricket Academy.

It is hoped Clark will return to Folkestone with new coaching tips that will help the club develop in the Kent League next year.

BELOW PAR: Dover (in blue) looked dangerous on the counter but were unable to break down the home team's defence to prevent an away defeat on Saturday

Sharks slump in a below-par display

RUGBY

■ BY TOM HOWARD

Gravesend 19-13 Dover

The Sharks could have extended their lead when Ben Sedgwick went close in the corner, but some fine defence from the hosts kept the scoreline down.

Gravesend closed the half strongly and the outside-half slotted a penalty in the very last minute.

The second half started badly for the Sharks, with the Gravesend outside-half striking two penalties.

Although Gravesend kicked well tactically, Dover looked dangerous on the counter and there was some powerful running from deep.

The home side's defence remained solid and the Sharks were unable to penetrate the gap.

Martyn Beaumont slotted another penalty to give Dover a lifeline; however, this proved to be short-lived as they conceded a penalty on their own five-metre line.

Gravesend took a quick tap and forced a try and duly added the conversion.

The Sharks had not built the platform for the backs to run the ball and the little they had was dealt with by the hosts easily.

The half was littered with errors and Dover's defence was way below its normal standard.

However, the Sharks did have one golden chance in the half when they were camped close to the line, but they failed to maximise on it and all the good work was lost.

The home side finished the half as they had started and another penalty was successfully converted to kill the game.

Dover will be disappointed with this display. The passion and desire from too many players was missing and some became embroiled by the influences of the crowd. They host league leaders Old Dunstonians at Crabble on Saturday.

Dover Athletic 2 Maldon Town 1

A GOAL from boss Andy Hessenthaler booked Dover Athletic's place in the next round of the FA Trophy courtesy of a 2-1 victory over Maldon Town.

After a disappointing defeat to Chatham Town on Monday, Athletic bounced back but failed to take any of their chances in the first half. Both sides went into the break with the scores level.

In the second half, Dover began to attack the Essex side, creating even more chances and just after the hour they broke the deadlock.

A Dover free-kick found the head of Craig Wilkins and his powerful header flew into the top corner, leaving the goalkeeper rooted to the spot.

Byron Walker had the chance to increase Athletic's lead, but his volley trickled wide of the post.

Midway through the second half, Maldon were reduced to 10 men. A late challenge by Paul Shave saw him issued a red card.

A reluctant Shave had to be ushered off the pitch by match officials.

In the penultimate minute of the match, Hessenthaler stepped up and put the game beyond doubt with a goal of quality. Walker passed the ball to the player/manager on the edge of the box and he calmly placed the ball into the top corner.

Dover will be back in league action on Saturday, when they face a tricky trip to Burgess Hill Town. They are just four points behind Dover but lost their last game, against Metropolitan Police.

• Dover suffered their first league defeat of the season, losing 1-0 to Chatham Town at home last Monday. The only goal of the game came from Darren Smith. Dover hit the woodwork twice in the second half.

Walton & Hersham 2-1 Folkestone Invicta

TWO goals early in the second half sent Folkestone Invicta crashing out of the FA Trophy against Ryman League Division One side South Walton & Hersham at Stompond Lane.

Invicta went ahead on the seventh minute through a James Corbett header, but two quickfire goals quashed their dreams of a Wembley final.

The football season is just eight weeks old, but it appears Invicta boss Neil Cugley has a side capable of bringing success back to the Buzzlines Stadium.

Cugley said: "To be fair we didn't really start that well this season, but in the last few weeks we have really picked up the pace with our performances and were unfortunate to lose against East Thurrock last week.

"At the start of the season we didn't have key players such as Mark Saunders and Ellis Remy, who had fairly serious injuries that hurt us.

"Also, new signing Roland Edge had not played for a couple of years, so he needed some time to get match fit.

He added: "I am not sure what our goals are for the season, but I'm really pleased with the progress we have made as a team, especially with our FA Cup run that has taken us to within touching distance of the first round proper.

"It would be a great achievement for the club if we could make it."

Folkestone's 11-game unbeaten run ended with a 2-1 defeat at East Thurrock last week.

Two goals against the run of play proved too much for Cugley's side to come back from and the defeat dropped Invicta to ninth in the Ryman Premier.

Deal & Betteshanger 22-21 Lordswood

A SINGLE point separated the two sides after a nail-biting encounter, but it was Deal & Betteshanger who came away with the crucial points.

The Lions started the game well, opening the scoring early in the first half when scrum-half Adam Michael made a 25-metre break through the defence to cross for the first try of the match.

Tom Best increased the lead for Deal & Betteshanger with two successful penalty kicks. Lordswood opened their account with a penalty soon after and slowly began to come into the match.

The Lions continued to attack Lordswood and were rewarded for their pressure by scoring another try, this time from prop Darren Slater as he moved around a ruck to cross over the line.

Before the break, Lordswood replied with a try of their own to reduce the deficit with the score 15-10 at half-time.

In the second half, both sides pushed each other, hoping to force defensive errors, but it was the Lions who capitalised.

Winger Dave Farrell made a break and crossed the Lordswood line to score Deal's third try of the game.

In an exciting climax, Lordswood fought back, scoring a try and two penalties to move within a point of the Lions.

The Deal defence held firm to record another win, which moves them to second in the league.

SPORT IN BRIEF

Deal come through to win six-goal thriller

FANS at Greatness Park witnessed an action-packed game as Deal Town conquered Sevenoaks Town 4-2.

However, Derek Hares's side had a fight on their hands, going a goal down after 26 minutes. Nevertheless, four second-half goals secured their fourth league win of the season.

This win slots Deal into eighth place in the Kent League and they will be in action this weekend when they face VCD Athletic.

Hythe put on four-star display after cup defeat

PAUL FISK'S Hythe Town bounced back from their midweek cup defeat to Deal Town with a 4-0 home win against Kent League strugglers Holmesdale.

Buster Smissen was back in the starting line-up and he put Hythe 2-0 up with two goals inside 10 minutes.

Town extended their lead in the second half with another two goals, this time from Paul Brazier, which included a spot-kick.

The result moves Hythe up to seventh in the Kent League with three games in hand.

Ladies hockey team aim to turn draws into wins

YVETTE ILLSLEY'S Deal Ladies hockey side are still unbeaten this season after another draw, this time against Sevenoaks IV.

After a 1-1 stalemate against Folkestone Optimist last week, Deal were hoping to secure their third win of the season, but despite their efforts the game finished 2-2.

The draw moves Deal into third place in Kent Division Two, just a point behind leaders Maidstone, with Deal the only side yet to suffer a defeat.

Stones tumbling down league with latest defeat

FOLKESTONE Rugby Club were back in league action on Saturday and suffered another narrow defeat, this time against Bromley.

The Stones put in another strong performance, but a third try from Bromley proved too much for them to claw back and the game ended 19-12.

This defeat leaves Folkestone hovering above the bottom two and they will hope to return to winning ways when they entertain bottom side Horsham on Saturday.
